

Special to The Bee
GLM Construction won first place for Quail Creek Estates in the category $160,000 and over.

A diversified group of award winners

PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT awards recognize the best in development, custom homes, and in attached developments. Bill Heartman, president of the Sales and Marketing Council, said this year's competition differs in two ways from previous years. "First, the entries were more diversified than ever before, and second, the awards were not dominated by any one builder, which was nice to see. A lot of people had good years, and we had a lot more competition in the area."
